Stockton, late proprietor of the Todd's Tobacco Warehouse, was charged with perpetrating a se ries of frands, but at the request of those most Interested we refrained from giving publicity to the affair. He fled from the city some weeks since, leaving his securities to pay for the confidence they had reposed in his honor.

It appears that he has forged the name of h brother on certsin bonds of indemnity to Mr. Newman, his late partner, and to the city, as warehouseman. On both of these honds there were other names, however. The principal frand perpetrated was by re-selling tobacco that had aiready been sold. In one justance a abluper bought his own tobaccost an advanced rate Stockton's operations in this way amounted t five or six thousands of doilars. The where about of the man is unknown. TERATER.—There was a very excellent house night, at the theater, on the occasion of Miss Maggie Mitchell's second appearance. Both pieces went off well. They are very clevet, very neat, and very ellective little comedies. We are pleased to see such genuine appreciation of the can talent exhibited by this young actress-good houses and appreclative once. To night the bill is "Satau in Paris," in which Miss Mitchell personates some half dozen char acters; and "Milly, or the Maid with the Milk ing Pail," an exquisite little comedy, and a great worke with all classes of the community.

DEPREDATIONS ON THE MAILS.-Henry Sin clair, a mail earrier aged about 17 years, was arrested in Larne county, Ky., last week, charged with robbing the mail bags. It is thought that he has been guilty of rifling the mali repeatedly but the particular offense for which he was ap prehended was committed on Thursday. Col. Dohoucy, the U. S. Socialism to New York.—The New York Times publishes a lengthy stricle filled with statistics relative to the progress and decline of the Fourierite movement in that city, and states that the "Uniary Home" of Mr. Underhill—which was so nuch praised as a cheap abode for genteel persons with small linemess—was unthing more than a Free Love establishment has affeged economy was entirely apocryphal. The expenses of redding in it averaged $10, instead, as was pretended, $3 to $4 per week. The normals of the "household" were had beyond description. The writer says:

"The leading spirits of the enterprise were detected in ceil practices. The license of the sexes grew bolder. Unblushing adultery was no uncommon chromatonec. The serving anides were debauched; children of tender years felt vietims to the axis of accomplished seducers; lust raged, and decency was banished. As these facts, one by one, came out, those among the immates whose sympathics remained true to the better instincts of immanity, fied the premises, exercise, with them, a story of their experiences. better instincts of humanity, fled the premises, earrying with them a serry of their experiences which almost transcended beliaf. Instances have been related to us of the universal license which provailed among the menagers of the establishment and their chosen companious. It was no uncommon occurrence for brother and sister, cousins, and other relatives, to associate together as man and wife. To rum a child was regarded as a pleasant deed. To seduce a wife was considered no wrong to the husband."

So abominable and open did the corruption at last become, that all but a chosen tew of Mr. Underbiff's many patrons deserted him, and he was obliged to close his extensive establishment. He, however, still conducts a similar institution on a smaller acule. To such a disgraceful cud has New York communism at

AN ORTRAGE.—A desperate allray occurred at Larkins' eating saloun, yesterday morning about three o'ctock, in which ene if not both parties were seriously injured. F. While there, Thomas Stokes, (who was in the row at the juil last Saturday,) with some four or two others, same In. Shortly after, Stokes took exception to an srticle in the Avalanche in reference to himself, and while Mr. Gailor was making for the door, he was struck violently with a slung-shot, which broke his nose, and prostrated him on his her on the floor. While down, Stokes' party jumped upon him, but he was soon extricated, and batters he could get to the door, Stokes came upon him, but he was soon extricated, and batters he could get to the door, Stokes came upon him, when they clenched, and a sculle ensued, in which Stokes strempted to shoot Gailor; and trailor, in attempting to stab Stokes, booke his knife. Again Gailor was relased from Stokes and his party, and gut out into the street, where he was twice fired upon by Stokes, the balls passing near his head. At this point, the police interfered and arrested Stokes, but subsequently released him; and Mr. Gailor was taken to Dr. Mitchell's office, where his wounds were properly attended to. We are gratified to say that, barring the breaking of his nose and a few braises on his person, Mr. Gailor is not seriously injured, and will he about the afew days. When we consider the desperate character of his assailants and the odds arrayed against kim, the we consider the desperate character of his as saijants and the odds arrayed against him, the wouder is, not that he has been injured, bu that he did not pay the penalty of their dis pleasure with his fife. A Correction.

Relitors Louisville Courier: I beg to correct, through your columbs, a statement which appeared yesterday in the Democrat. The editor there relaises how an old man named Barrett, who was returning from the theater "on Saturday night at three o'clock," was knocked down by a raffan, who sho broke said Barrett's leg. The truth is, the man was injuvicated, fell down, and broke his leg.

The writer of this don't think the policemen much "dereliet in dury" because they didn't happen to be on hand to pick up a man whose accident was caused by his own indiscretion. The person who thought proper to instants that the policemen are not about attending to their business is not acquainted with the facts of the aase. The ward is very large, and with the force allowed, it is impossible for the policemen to phase certain aquares as often as as a really necessary. Ou the night in question, the policemen were engaged in suppressing some dancing parties who were very noisy and riotous, else tiny might have picked up the man referred to, at an earlier hour.

After Mr. Leach had concluded, Hon. J. P. Engene Underwood, the very doctrine of the Democratic platform, viz. that a Territory confiduot decide upon the slavery question prior to the formation of the State Constitution, to which every Democrat in the house said "good" During his yemarks he said he was frank toacknowledge that the purpose of a Douglas electoral ficket was to give Kennucky to Bell. He said there was a freekinridge electoral ficket in Indiana—that fix purpose was to give the State to discoolin, and that the purpose of the Douglas ticket in this state was of precisely the same character. It was decided as a fact that there was such an electoral ficket in Indiana, by a Democrat present, but he persisted in the assertion. He said the Breekinridge party were geografy for distinction, and he would rather see Bell closted, since he could not get his consent, under any circumstances, to tote for a man that would dissolve this 1 mion. I wonder now, when the purpose that a month ago was so carefully concealed is openly avoived—when the sale of the Douglas nen of Kentucky to the Know Nothing party is so publicly advertised—whether or not they will spurn the athance? Editora Louisville Concier: I have seen so many laise reports concerning affairs in the interior of our State, that I have concluded to correct them to some extent. I presume that it is unnecessary to say that the rumor that Mitchell had killed Gant in a duel was without truth: also that the vote of the State was only about 7,000, when the next county (Independence, Jaione cast near 2,509. Neither is it true that the Governor effect is a Douglas man, but he and his opponent are both Breckinridge men, and the issue between them was on local polley. I can give you one item that you can rely on. Breckiaridge will carry the State by 25,600 votes. There are some Douglas men in the norticern tier of counties, at Batesvilleand Pine llind, elsewhere none. The Bell men are jubilant, thanking that they gight a distracted foe, but the more condid of them agree that there is no chance in this State.

Chancellor Fairchild has recently been appointed Judge of the Sapreme Court. An excellent lawyer and an excellent man; a better appointment could not have been made.

A. M. Rose, Esq., of Batesville, was made Chancellor in Mr. Fairchild's place. Mr. Rose is a young man, but has a name as a scholar and as a sound lawyer, which, perhaps, no care in the State has ever had at his age. He is a native of our did State of Kentneky, and I think was born at either Bardstown or Lebanon.

They were called together for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Convention to be held at Jetterson City, on the 20th inst. It was remarkable to observe the carnestness with which old Democrats, who have grown gray in the acrylee, railied around the banner when their dearest principles were endangered.

He then discussed, at length, the principles on which the several candidates now before that people were rinning. We assume tattempt even a synopsis of his happy effort. His appeals for the South, and for their gallant standard bearers, Breekinridge and Lane, were fervent and elo-quent, and were greeted with unbounded ap-plause. Resolutions were passed approving our State platform, and the platform of the Convention which nominated Breckinridge and Lane.

Clay county and Missouri will make a noble fight for Breckinridge and Lane in November. We still have every faith in Old Kentucky, not regarding the election of Comba as any test whatever. Our Legislature is largely Breckinridge, and at their next assembling they will not fail to return to the Senate that goldant clampion of Missouri Democracy, the Hon. Jas. 8. Green. In fact, it is conceded by all parties that Missouri could not make a more deadly thrust at the South than to discard that able and galant defender of fier rights. The Donglastics are rather down in the mouth about here, for they say that he cannot be elected without they effect a compromise with the Bellites. They say that Breckinridge and Lane will carry Kentneky, and that Douglas' main strength in Kentneky is in this part of the State; and If that is so, he is very weak at the strongest. The Bell mentalk of nothing else but a compromise with the Douglas men, and the Douglas usen talk of nothing else but a compromise with the Bell men; and while this strife is going on between them, Breckinridge and Lane are making glorlous headway. You may rest assured that Spencer, one of Itouglas' strongest countles in the State, will give Breckinridge and Lane at least cue hundred majority.

A Boy of ELEVEN YEARS THEED FOR MURDAR. The Daily Saratogan easys:

The trial of Henry Price, on the charge of murder, for shooting James Cox, in Wilton, on the 21st of August last, has resulted in his convertion of manslangher in the fourth degree.—This case has exaited some interest, because the principal parties were mere children, James Cox, whose life was sacrificed, belong only eight years old, and Price, by whose hands he fell, oleven years old. It seems incredible that there could have been an intention to take life; and we think the testimouy hears out the inference that the Price boy was more heedless and headstrong than wifally criminal. The case of this lad, however, is not without instruction to unruly boys and careless parents. Here is a boy only eleven years old, who persisted, against the commands of one whom he should have abeyed, in taking out a loaded gun. It was discharged in his hands, either earelessly or purposely, killing a little planmate, and depriving a mother of her darling son. He is then sent to juil, and afterwards tried for the terrible aring of murder; and finally a jury convicts him of manslanghær, and the judge sends him far away from heine, to the ilonse of Refuge—a place hall for bad hoys—where he must stay perhaps for years. Let boys who disobey their parents, and parents who fail to control and properly instrust their children, bear in mind the sad lesson turnished by the case of this little boy. There was no immediate danger to Evons' warehouse, from the fact of the building being much lower than the burning one, but the owners of the goods on storage and the insurance agents employed a gang of men to roll out the goods. Meanwhile the efforts of the firemen were mainly directed to Breedow & Warsshoff's and to the warehouses on the opposite side of Fourber effect. We have heretofore expressed our opinion of party coalitions in general, and we have seen no reason to change our views lnany respect. We ould give our sanction to no fusion, no coalltion no arrangement requiring any concession to the enemies of the Constitution and the budal rights of the States. If defeat could be treated by a course which would demoralize the victors, leaving them enfeebled and help less for fature contests, we should deprecate good at the expense of principle, and honor, and future safety and success. If defeat should be the result of a determined and gallant struggle for "truth, justle, and the Constitution," the vanquished would fall with honor as heroes fall, and the respect of friends and focs would nerve them for other struggles and an ultimate and nermanent astendency.

But the friends of Mr. Douglas are restrained from the formation of each combinations by no ideas of propriety, no question of policy, no conse of honor, no regard for principle. They have united with the friends of BELL in New York, in Kentucky, in New Jersey, and other places and stand ready to fuse with the Know Nothing to Indiana, In Virginia, in North Caro line, and wherever else the two factions have an existen e. Their professed object in making of proper a these arrangements with the enemies of the Descountie party is the defeat of Ltxlags to a complish this very desirable object, they have refused, on every occusion, so far, to unite wheathe friends of Mr. BEECKINEIDGE to the range purpose. Between Breckinridge and I needs, in the language of W. A. RICHARIS 238, of I was, they are indifferent. And this pur-e has been advised, we are informed ! Mr. FORSET and others, by Mr. Douglas him self. We do not complain that they have retused to form coalitions, preferring to stand irraly, and mirly, and inflexibly by Squatter Sovereign. . Were that the case, they would have our respect and that of honorable men every where. But having sacrificed their principles to co-operate with the Know Nothing-antisquatter Sovereignty-Slavery Protectionists of Kentucky to elect Comms, and joined with anti Catholic and autl-foreign Americans In New York, we call attention to the fact that they indiente their indiff rence between Bunckinuther. and Lincoln by chelr obstituate refusal to comtine their torce with the friends of BRECK INBIDGE in lania, Pennsylvania, and class

The abovet . Tile Donglasites evidently is to give ad the North ra States, if possible, to Lin-COLN, and as many of the Southern States to BELL as in y be in their power. And proposiflons looking to the joint action of the friends of ERE. EINEIDOG . od Dovolas against Bell liave ed in Leutucky, in Virginia and in perhaps other Southern States-rejected, not eccuse any principle was involved-rejected. not because of may one cientions objections to political combination —rejected solely because it would defeat But, and give the States to BEECKINEID & while It they do not wish. That tale course Is in a mordance with the wishes of Mr. Dovoras there is little room to doubt.

In Tenuceses, the Douglasites are utterly por rless, even to give the state to BELL. The course of the leading frouda of Mr. Bent, such as the ble Sneed the cloudent Gentry, the patriolis READY, and others, in giving up their ancient BRECKINEIDGE and LANK, and the impossibilit of forming a Donalas Electoral ticket that will retand fire. with other facts countly convincing are satisfied the most incredulous that Mr. ESECSIVELUSE will carry the State, not by a plurality vote alone, but by an absolute majority ver both BELL and DoroLAS. Unde circumstances, the Douglas candidates for Electore in the First and Se oud Districts of that state, proposed the withdrawal of the entire DocoLas ilcket, and a union of the Democracy of the State upon the Banckingtone Floriary andidates, provided they would agree, if elected, to vote so as to defeat Liveoux If possible nd to keep BELL out of the House If the election should go to that hody. This was promptly agreed to by the BEECKINAIDGE Central Com-Littee and the BRECKINRIDGE Electors. Whether right or wrong the friends of Mr. BRECKINaidge having mething themselves to gain as far se the pending ouvers le concerned, lu a spirit of hartuony and with a desire to unite the party Low and hereafter, a reed to the proposition each a proposition coming from the Douglasites to the Democrats was so contrary to their whole But sub can at events have shown that the Lectors on the Donglas ticket who made the overtores had consuited only the rank and file of their falle jury, and that the politicians who sume the lead in the thousement for Douglas In that State linew nothing of it, and will not bulenance or approve it. The Denie ra , published in Nashville, the oran of the Bourd's Central Committee, Indigand a summy a virtue of which its party are clissful ignorum e it talks shout it being the 'pari of traitors to "surrender principles" to support the "Base at surose parity!" I Will the Democrat please tell us what part the Donglafied of Kentucky acted when they voted for the candidate of the protection-to-slavery Know Nothings of K atucky for Clerk of the Court of Appeals " After publishing the corres condence, and the remarks of the Union and American thet in the Tennessee Squatter of the sauthoritatively stated, among the leading political men here, that Douglas has struck a bargain with two inturcusefulcrests in the country to elect Lincoln if he caunot efect himself. It is said the New Almaden Quicksilver Mine Company have assigned a large interest to Douglas for his influence to induce the federal government, after next March, to abandon the suit against that company, and that there is an understanding with the Republicans for this purpose; and it is asserted, also, that the New York Central Raifroad Company and other companies have agreed with the Republicans for the control of the Pacific Kaliroai route and contract. Douglas is to have a farge interest, and Chicago, where his property lies, is to be specially benefitted. American there in, the Tennessee Squatter organ says

Jir. Britt is has unfortunately placed himself in a very peculiar position, by the publication of this has ris the Culon and American, when he fines that there was a paper published in this cite a sporting Douglas and Johnson, through which he might have sent his proposition to the Control Committee for their action. Mr. Entries was in this city a whole day, and never made an attempt to communicate with the Learn's Committee, or may leading Democra-upon the inflamous proposition which he put lished to the electors, asking them to act the part if trainors to the supporters of Douglas and Johnson, loadandon the field to the Breckmridge electors, and surrender their planciples, that the leaders of the Breckfuridge party may reach the offices of the Ereckfuridge party may reach the offices of the State and the Union and American get the public printing.

This whole scheme was concected and carried on ity our Honorable Senators, who, no donlit, acting upon the fears and weakness of an inexperienced young man, have induced him to ofter a surrender of principle without a promise of anything good in the future. We can be led to to other conclusion than this, from the various letters that have been received, and actions of the parties concerned, and we now ask Mr. Britton to publicly proclaim that he is for Loughts or Breckinridge, as we have no feelings in common with temporisers and me concessions to make.

So there is to be no union in Tennessee between the Democracy and the Donglas leaders against BELL. We do not regret the result. pointed office seekers, decapitated office hold-ers, and unappreciated local politicians, the friends of Mr. Douglas there will now, seeing the object of those reeking to control them, go with the Democracy, and not only will the State no doubt , but the Legislature will be seenred Thus day by day, and hour by hour, are the purposes and the plans, the treachery and the bad faith, of the Dongias leaders being exposed; and day by day the honest masses who were delu ied into the support of the "little glant" are abandoning his fallen fortunes, and returning to the "household of faith." So mote it be.

The news from Tennessee clearly shows gains for Breckinridge. The letter of Col. Mr. Bell had no abler or more reputable supporter. Were the National Intelligencer to come out for Breckinridge it would not be a stronger blow to Bell. ## DAILY COURIER.

A number of Chinese were recently armigned efore Judge Creanor, of the District Court of onors, Touinmue county, for the marder of one of their countrymen at Blg Oak Flut, some months since. The Sonora Democrat thus de-seribes a striking seene in Court during the

When the witnesses were placed upon the stand, considerable difficulty was experienced with regard to their taking the required oath. The interpreter—an intelligent Chinaman, who took the obligation in the usual form—informed the Court that, in order to administer an impressive oath to the witnesses, it would be necessary to conform to the customs of the Chinase, which was by cutting chickens' heads off, and going through certain other ceremonies, such as burning paper, catelles, &c. This announcement, it must be confessed, rafter staggered the Court. Judge C. had never before been called on to do anything of the kind, although he had seen ten years active service on the brach in California, and it was somewhat of a poser to him to know how to go about it.—Finally, after being satisfied that by no other means could they be made to understand the solemnity and import of an oath, the requisite number of shanghais were ordered, and pretty soon they made themselves heard in Court.

Then followed a scene which attracted the burt.
Then followed a scene which attracted the steenion of all, and which we shall not some

Then followed a scene which attracted the attention of all, and which we shall not some forget.

The chickens were taken out ou the balcony of the court-room, and there the half dozen witnesses repaired, after each received a plece of marked yellow paper, about the size of a man's haud. On the railing of the indeony, four colored candies, each six inches in length, were lighted, on the railing of the listeony, four colored candies, each six inches in length, were lighted, on the right and on the left of which were bundles of thin sticks (we believe they are called Joss sticks) also on fire. Pretty soon, after all the prelliminaries were satisfactorily arranged, one of the Chinameu stepped forward, and after mumbing over some words, the exact menning of which we falled to comprehend, knelt upon une leg, seized hold of a chicken with one hand, and the hatchet with the other, and in a twinkling, dealt the former a blow across the neck, which put an end at once to its earthly career. Then rising, immediately after the consummation of this bloody act, he howed reverently three times before the lighted altar, which probably represented his Joss, lighted his yellow paper, cast it on the floor, and retired. Another came forward, went through the same operation, each sacrificing a chicken, until the which number were thus aworn to tell "the truth," so help them Joss. After this eeremony was over, the trial proceeded in the usual manner, with the exception of there being a little more gesticulation, and loud jargon than ageneral in the court. All this Jossing was very funny and novel to the "outside barbarlans," who seemed to relish it greatly, attough John was in no wise disconcerted at their eager curlosity and derishe smiles. It was one of the scenes which is not witnessed every day, even in California, and we donbt whether in any other state of the American Union such a proceeding has ever transpired. Truly may it be said, the convergence of the American Union such a proceeding has ever transpired.

GEN, PILLOW PURCHASES ABDUCTED NEGRO For some time past considerable commution has existed in this city because of the alleged abduction of a number of free negroes, who were sold out of the State as alayes for life, when abduction of a number of free negroes, who were sold out of the State as slaves for Hfe, when they had but terms to serve by order of the Judge of the Criminal Court, as punishment for offenses of which they had been convicted. Several of those so abducted were sold to Gen. Pillow, of Tennessee, and placed on a plantation belonging to him in Arkansas. They were questioned by him, and he soou discovered that they were convictes, had been sold for a term of years, and could not have been legalty received from the State of Maryland. As soon as Gen. Pillow hissenvered the fact, he promptly addressed the Mayor of Baithmore on the subject, and announced his readliness to return the negroes to those authorized to receive them.

The matter remained uninvestigated until brought to the notice of the Police Board, and that body promptly instructed the Marshal to take proper steps for the vindication of the laws of the State. Marshal Kane at once wrote to Gen. Pillow, who promptly replied, again expressing his readiness to return the negroes, and do everything lu his power to ald in a proper vindication of the law. He expressed the wish that the nefarious practice of Imposing servants of the character referred to upon Soulfiern planters may be broken up. The Board of Police has instructed Marshal Kane to spare no expense in protecting the rights of the colored people from that class of speculators who have deprived them of their rights and their Illustries.— Baltimore Son, Sept. 17.

Efficies of the Late Storm at Point Alla.

EFIECTS OF THE LATE STORM AT POINT-A-LA-HACHE AND THE VICINITY—LOSS OF LIFE.—We are informed by the clerk of the steamer Texas Ranger, which arrived last evenling from the Balize, that Mr. Gay, wife, and daughter were drowned in the Mississippi, in front of their residence, a few miles below Point-a-la-Hache, at a place called the Junp. It seems that Mr. Gay considering it too daugerous for his family to remain in their dwelling, transferred them to his sail bout, after having cut away her const. Soon after effecting their removal, a large tree was blown immediately over the boat, causing Soon after enecting their removal, a large tree was blown immediately over the beag, cauching her to sluk, and all the Inmates were drowned. Their bodies have all been recovered by the frientle of the deceased. A disherman was picked up last Monday evening, at 7 o'clock, from a skiff in the river, by the Ranger. He says that a party of thirty-three others and blinself were encamped near Bird Island at the time the gale commenced. The first indication they had was when the wind commenced blowing a hurricaue, and the water rose a foot and a half in a f. w minutes. It theu moderated for two hours, when it recovered its fury with a greater force than ever. The thirty-three men, who were with him, took to their sail boat, called the look out, but were capized as they were passing the place of Mr. Gay, and all but three of the occupants were drowned. He himself took a skiff, and was afterwards picked up by the Ranger, as above described. From a passenger by the same steamer, we learn that the singar house of Mr. Huff, three nilles below Point-a-la-Hache, was blown down and completely demolished.—[N. O. Richard A. Ivers, messenger of the United States Express Company on the river route, landedhere on the morning of the Gth, and the express wagon not being at the landing, he took from the safe the money, smounting to near $15,800, and looked the safe again, leaving an old hat and some valuable papers. He came up into the city and roused the driver of the express wagon, who immediately hitched up and started for the handing. When he arrived there he found the safe missing. He immediately returned and reported what had happened. Mr. Ivers, who is a good detective, started during the day in search of the safe. He found it see restellon the bank. He left it where he found it, and as soon as night came on several gentlemen were left to watch it, well knowing that the thief would soon be after his prize. Ahout two o'clock, here came the thief, with coal-thief, mallet, punch, and other implements necessary to open a safe, and went to work. He had siruck but a few licks, when Henry Stoner, the express driver, slipped from his hiding place and arrested him. He was surprised very much when he found that Henry was not his "partner." A VAGRANT DEAF MUTE BOY.—A deaf mute boy, some len or twelve years old, was brought to the Institution for the Deaf and Dunio luftis place, on Tuesday last by the stage from Nicholasville. He was found at the depot of the Covingum read in Lexington, and rent on to this place. He gave his name as Henry C. Littell, but can answer no other questions by writing. This name is also found on his shirt. Nothing delinite can be ascertained as to his whereabouts from his signs. He has light hair and blue eyes. If he can be retained, he will be provided for by the Institution; but he has already left once, and was brought back by the stage from Hustonville on Thursday morning. His friends must make immediate and settly efforts, if they wish to recover him. It seems probable that he eame to Lexington on the train from Covington.—[Danville (Ky.) Tribune.

HEAVY FORGERY CASE .- The Franklin Review f Thursday last says:
"Gur town has been in a fever of excitement "Our lown has been in a fewer of excitement in consequence of the discovery of a number of lorgeries committed by R. H. Beale, a man well known in this commannity, and enjoying the highest confidence of our citizens. It appears that Mr. B. has been using forgod paper for some time for the purpose of raising money. Someof this paper he redeemed, but growing holder with success, he put out so many notes that suspicion was aroused, and investigation developed a number of notes to which Mr. Beate had affixed the names of several of our prominent men.

ALBANT, Sept. 25.—James T. Brady, candidate for Covernor on the Breckinnings ticket, unde a speech here to-night. He proclaimed war to the knife against the Donglas Democracy, decisting that if Lincoln was elected, Seward would be his Secretary of State, and Evarts fill Seward's place in the Senate, in which event the Democratle party would be the only National party, and would be in the ascendency, and that after this contest, Donglas would not be heard of again. This speech is regarded as a final blow to a union of the Democracy in the State of New York.
